At this point, you will either be taken directly to the room. If not, you will be taken through these steps,

This is the next screen that you should see. If you have used Zoom before, your name and photo may pop up automatically. If not, this is what you will see.

Type in your name. Click the blue button.

Once you are in the room, Click OK on the pop-up to acknowledge that the meeting is being recorded.

When you are in the room, this is what you will see.

In the lower left you will see the controls for your mic and video. Please keep your mic off until the discussion portion of the meeting.

If you want to turn on your camera, we would love to see your beautiful face! If not, that's OK too.

You will see the meeting controls along the bottom. The three dots at the right of that navigation panel contain settings including your background.

There are other controls like reactions and the meeting chat.

At the top right, you will see your view settings. This will allow you to adjust the room view to your liking.

You can take some time and look around to get a feel for the app.

Or you can just dive right in!
